A Carmelite asked on Tuesday: "What closes in Carmel on election day? Bars, liquor stores and the city clerk's office."

City Clerk Larry Rose did not use the "holiday" to go picnicking. He and his staff spent the day catching up on a volume of work that is becoming too voluminous.

There are so many city bodies holding special meetings, study sessions and public hearings, in addition to their regular monthly meetings, all requiring clerical man hours to give notice, prepare agendas and minutes, reports and correspondence that they threaten to wear out the council chamber furniture as well as the city clerk and his staff.

"Harlan Ware is an unexcelled bread baker," is the stated opinion of Carmel Precinct 12 Election Board.

Tuesday evening radio writer Ware brought the eight weary workers a loaf of bread he had just baked. Vote tallying finished, clerks and judges spread butter, also provided by Mr. Ware, to melt into slices of the fragrant, warm bread. Cups of steaming coffee completed the late evening snack. Mr. Ware brought the coffee, too, in a huge thermos.

Unopposed, Harlan Ware carried both Republican and Democratic tickets in Precinct 12 as candidate for best bread baker, butter provider and coffee carrier in the California primaries.

"Sparky" Ruskell has solved his personal parking problem. Arriving for work Monday on a new, pussycat grey gasoline scooter, he placed it modestly under the pines of the post-office parking lot.

"When they finish building, I'm going to park it in the new post-office," he announced. "To heck with the parking problem."

The city council meeting lasted until 11:40 last night and we're disappointed in Councilman Francis Whitaker. At ten minutes to 11:00 he rattled the papers in his wire basket threateningly and we expected that at 11:00 o'clock he would pick up his basket, as in the good old days when he was on the council before, and stalk out, throwing the rest of the council into confusion and adjournment.

But at 11:00 o'clock, Councilman Whitaker did not pick up his basket. He sat there, not moving, not saying a word.

Just because he wears glasses does he think people can't see when his eyes are closed?

Billboard hating I, riding through Idaho last week, Cliff driving, found myself doing the incredible, smiling at a billboard.

"Don't just sit there. Nag your husband," it proclaimed.

It was a come-on for the next board advertising The Stinker Service Station, skunk for a symbol, dealing in cut-rate gas.

We didnt' try any.

It was a wonderful vacation—aren't they all! It snowed at Lake Tahoe. It rained in Ontario, Oregon, where three days earlier frost had ruined the potato crop. It rained at Pullman, Washington, but who cared, when we could bask

School Board To Offer Modified Salary Schedule To Teachers In Special Meeting At H. S. Tonight

Members of Carmel school district finance committee will present a proposed salary schedule to the Carmel Teachers Association salary committee at a joint meeting of the two groups this evening.

Trustee George Yates, speaking for the finance committee, reports that this schedule is competitive with other peninsula school systems. It will not increase teachers' salaries as much as asked by their salary committee, but will, Mr. Yates states, fit the board's budget and give teachers a raise in pay.

Other members of the finance committee who worked on the schedule are Trustee Dr. Grant Fletcher, district accountants Reed and Heckenlaible, Superintendent Stuart Mitchell and Assistant Superintendent Wayne Greenfield.

Minimum (Class I) starting salary is $4800 in the new schedule as compared to $4500 at present. The first three years in the system a teacher's salary increases $100 a year. At the end of three years if the teacher is granted tenure, salary is increased $300 for the fourth year, then $200 a year until the end of the twelfth year of teaching. At that point top minimum (Class I) salary is $6900. Similar raises at the same steps are given in each of the other four teacher classifications. Proposed Class II range is $5100-$7200; Class III, $5400-$7500; Class IV, $5700-$7800; Class V, $6000-$8100.

After 14 years with the Carmel system teachers in Class III will receive a $300 raise for their fifteenth year of teaching; another $300 raise for the eighteenth year; arriving at a top salary of $8100. Class IV and Class V teachers will receive the same increases at the same steps but an additional $300 will be paid them when they reach their twenty-third year with the system. Top Class IV salary will be $8700; Class V, $9000. At present the top teacher salary is $8000.

The Carmel Teachers Association salary committee, through their chairman, Charles Moody, last month asked the board for a salary schedule with a minimum (Class I) starting salary of $4800 to increase by $200 a year for the second and third years, $400 for the fourth year, $200 a year each year though the tenth year when the minimum top salary (Class I) would stop at $6800. Class II would receive similar raises at the same steps and also during the eleventh year, top salary then $7300. Class III-V same increases at same steps with additional raises of $200 a year for the eleventh and twelfth year; Class III, top salary would then be $7800; Class IV, $8100; Class V, $8400.

In addition, teachers reaching their fifteenth year with Carmel system would be given a $200 raise through all classifications. Class I and II would receive no more raises. Class I salary would end at $7100 under the teachers' proposed schedule; Class II at $7600. Classes III, IV and V would receive another $300 raise at the eighteenth year; Class V an additional $300 raise at the twenty-third year. Top salaries would be: Class III, $8400; Class IV, $8700; Class V, $9500.

Classification qualifications are as follows: Class I, bachelor's degree; Class II, B.A. plus 15 postgraduate semester units; Class III, B.A. plus 30 postgraduate units; Class IV, B.A. plus 45 postgraduate units or master's degree; Class

Annual Red Cross Meeting June 16

The public is invited to attend the annual meeting of the Carmel chapter of the American Red Cross on June 16 at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the chapter house, Dolores Street and Eighth Avenue.

The annual report of the chapter and special awards will be presented. All volunteers will attend in uniform and refreshments will be served. Guest speaker will be Peter J. Murphy, deputy manager of the Pacific Area of the American Red Cross.

Theme of the meeting is Volunteers Are the Heart of the Red Cross.

City Mayor Appoints Temporary-Permanent Standing Committees

Last night Mayor Frank Putnam appointed two councilmen to each of three temporary committees which will become permanent standing committees as soon as the ordinance defining procedure will have its second reading and publication.

The mayor appointed himself and Councilman John Chitwood to the Committee on Administration which will deal with matters concerning licensing and taxation; personnel; committees and commissions; procedures.

He placed Councilmen Francis Whitaker and Gunnar Norberg on the Land and Improvement Committee whose province is municipal buildings and facilities; utilities, forestry, recreation and cultural facilities.

He named Councilmen Eben Whittlesey and John Chitwood to the Committee of Public Welfare which is concerned with planning and zoning; commerce and professions; education.

Under the new ordinance, which was read by title only last night, "all matters for the attention of the city council shall, upon receipt, be referred by the mayor to the appropriate committee for a report of findings and recommendations to the city council. The mayor may delegate to the city clerk the function of referring such matters to the committee."

The proposed procedure permits committee work to be done before the matters come before the council as a whole. At present all new business comes "cold" before the council and the mayor appoints a committee to investigate and report back at the following month's meeting, involving at least a month's delay.

Additional appointments last night: Mrs. Fritz Wurzmann to the Arts Commission to replace Gilbert Boyer who resigned because he will be in Mexico for three months; Francis Whitaker to be council representative on the Area Planning Commission.

Arts Commission Abandons Hopes For Art Festival

The city council tried to maintain a decent look of regret and sympathy, but it is doubtful if they or anyone in the audience felt anything but relief last night when Arts Commissioner Nelo Drizari told the council:

"The Arts Festival has bogged down for lack of a place, and other considerations."

And Festival-Co-ordinating Committee Chairman Charles Thomas rose up in the audience to announce:

"It has been called off definitely."

"Then there's no hurry to get the Forest Theatre repaired," observed Councilman Francis Whitaker.

Nor has there been any hurry on the part of the council since last January when the arts commission asked the council to authorize repairs to the Forest Theater stage and lighting system, about $5,000 worth. The commission needed the Forest Theater for its proposed Arts Festival, scheduled for this fall, and the city-owned theater needed fixing up anyway. Its unusability in its present condition is demonstrated by the fact that no one has asked for the use of it for summer productions, for the first time in years.

Since January, the repair of the Forest Theater has appeared every month on the council meeting agenda. It has been referred to committees and referred to various city officials, the last one Fire Chief Robert Smith, last month. Last night Smith reported that he couldn't give a report until he could get in touch with the state fire marshal, and it was continued to a joint meeting of the arts commission and city council, requested by the arts commission and set for June 23, 8:00 o'clock.

Three new council members, elected in April, favored repair of the Forest Theater during their Does Anyone Know Whereabouts of Everett and Lillian Grimes?

The city council may acquire for the city a strip of shore line south of Santa Lucia Avenue if Everett M. Grimes and Lillian Grimes can be located to clear title on one portion of land.

The council has been trying to get information about the Grimes for two years—any information. All they can discover is they lived here at one time, had property on the Point and sold it.

If any Carmel resident remembers them will he please communicate with any councilman of the city or the Carmel Pine Cone.

The Council And Our City Family

Last night the city council hired four "casual employees", leave of absence and vacation replacements: Clyde R. Klaumann, not to be confused with his father Chief of Police Clyde Klaumann, as police officer at $2.23 per hour; Dick B. Lawitzke, police desk clerk, $2.11 per hour; James Cherry, fire engine driver, $1.85 per hour. The council approved the engagement of Sidney L. Williams, relief building inspector, $4.00 per hour, for five days relief duty in May.

Two city employees got pay raises: Street laborer Rudolph F. Lang, completing 18 months on salary schedule step 4 was advanced to the next step, $398 per month. Eleanor S. Shepherd, part-time fiscal clerk, completing step 2 was advanced to $326 per month, step 3.

Police Chief Clyde Klaumann was granted permission to take his vacation June 13 to 26, and the council had fun with Fire Chief Robert Smith before they approved his attending the "Arson Seminar" in Berkeley, June 12-17.

"Do you want to learn how to set them?" one asked him.

"I don't know," said Chief Smith, "Things are pretty slow here."

He explained that the University of California seminar included methods of determining all causes of fire, accidental as well as intentional.

Street Superintendent William Askew requested and got permission to take his vacation at a time to be arranged when he can best be spared from his department.

Council approved City Clerk Larry Rose's request to attend a dinner in San Luis Obispo in honor of retiring William S. Dolliver, State Division of Highways, and on motion of Councilman John Chitwood, passed a resolution of

TURNER & McELDOWNEY AND PILOT TOP SECOND-HALF
League Standings
(As of June 7)

	Won	Lost
Pilot Market	2	0
Turner & McEldowney	1	0
Boys' Town	1	1
Sport Shop	1	1
San Carlos Realty	1	2
Wilder & Jones	0	2

Art Carpenter's Pilot Market Little League crew and Don Canham's Turner & McEldowney entry got off to fast starts in second half play with the grocers gaining impressive wins over Sport Shop and San Carlos Realty and the bricklayers downing the first half champs, Wilder & Jones. Newt Goodrich's Boys' Town gang and Lew McCreery's Sport Shop aggregation broke even with a win and a loss in the first week's action.

Records were shattered all over the park when the Pilots downed the Sport Shop, 24 to 3. The grocers put on an awesome display of power to score 13 runs in the second inning as Tim Head and Vince DiBiase smashed booming home runs. The Pilot batters were swinging with authority in this one, collecting 18 hits while piling up the 22 runs. Pitcher Tim Head showed his mates the right way to generate the power by stroking a pair of home runs and two singles in five trips to the plate. The husky lefty also drove in five runs and limited the Sports to one hit while gaining the pitching victory. Ronnie Parsons, Scott Lemons, and Curt Mitchell each garnered three hits with one of Lemons' blows going for the circuit. Gary Kearns, Pat Woolsey and Mark Zanides took turns at trying to stem the Pilot power, but the grocers were wearing their hitting clothes and greeted all the pitchers with ringing base hits. J. Montmorency was the only Sport Shop batter to register a base hit, connecting for a single in the sixth frame.

Jack Miller's San Carlos Realty dropped an 8-1 decision to Pilot's as Curt Mitchell and Ronnie Parsons teamed up to throw a two-hitter at the realtors. Jim Sparolini, hard-hitting third-baseman for San Carlos, hit one out of the park to account for the lone realtor run. Pitcher Parsons hit a pair of doubles to pace the winners' batting attack.

Wilder & Jones, first-half champs, found the going a little sticky the second time around, dropping decisions to San Carlos Realty and Turner & McEldowney. The T&M squad clipped the plumbers, 11 to 5, with Pete Crane getting credit for the win. Jack Cate's W&J crew enjoyed a 5-2 bulge going into the fifth heat but the bricklayers stormed back in the last two innings to push across nine runs. Lawson Little and Ring Guy led the winners' offense, each scoring three runs. Hart Silverie connected for a pair of singles to lead the losers in the hitting department.

Newt Goodrich's Boys' Town crew stayed close to the leaders with an 11-8 decision over the San Carlos gang. Gerald Pullen, Mike Bray and Eric Danysh collaborated to gain the win for Boys' Town with Danysh notching the verdict. Besides hurling steady ball for the winners, Danysh clubbed a grand slam homer to lead his mates at the plate. Jim Sparolini and Craig Cunningham led the San Carlos hitters with one of Sparolini's blows going for the circuit. Clinton Macy and Gerald Pullen also homered for the winners.

Tonight's Little League action matches Pilot Market with Boys' Town with Friday's bill showing San Carlos against Turner & McEldowney. Saturday evening at 5:30 o'clock, Wilder & Jones goes against Boys' Town in a game which was postponed from Tuesday. A broken water main forced directors to call off Tuesday night's game when the field was better for swimming than baseball.

VILLAGE INN UPSET BY ROCKETS IN FARM LEAGUE
Farm Team Standings

	Won	Lost
Village Inn	4	1
Little Sparrows	4	1
Carmel Plaza	4	1
Padres	3	2
Derek Rayne	2	3
American Legion	1	4
Nikko's	1	4
Rockets	1	4

An upset win by the underdog Rockets over the front-running Village Inn, featured last Saturday's Farm Team action at the Carmel Little League park. The favored Village Inn squad was figured to whip the Rockets in easy fashion but the cellar-dwelling Rockets got a fine pitching performance from Gaylord Swim and turned back the slightly over-confident Inn gang. Swim pitched very effectively in the tight spots, limiting the hard-hitting Village Inn swingers to five hits while striking out eight and giving up five free passes. In addition to pitching the win, Swim provided the Rockets' big blow when he tripled with the bases loaded. John Anzini sparkled behind the bat for the Rockets, making several excellent stops while keeping the Inn runners honest on the bases.

The Padres parlayed some good pitching by Lee Stoney and Ralph Forbes with Peter Rand's solid hitting to turn back Derek Rayne, 10 to 7, in a battle for second place in the Farm League. Big league fielding plays by Mike Young and Mark Holbrook helped the Padres on their way to victory.

This Saturday's Farm League play brings together Nikko's and the Rockets at 9:00 o'clock; the Padres and Little Sparrows tangle at 11:00; Derek Rayne and the American Legion square off at 1:00; and the Village Inn tries the Carmel Plaza at 3:00 o'clock.

Dear Sir:

Last year I had the pleasure of visiting your city and was impressed by the quiet atmosphere and the friendliness of your people.

I took the opportunity to ask several of your business-men how you maintain the law and order on your streets and beaches.

I would certainly appreciate having you tell me what regulations you have, to maintain the wonderful atmosphere, so that we may make the proper recommendations to our local Police Department.

Sincerely,
Morton Francis, President
Falmouth Chamber of Commerce

P.S. Perhaps you would prefer to refer this letter to your local Chamber of Commerce.

Carmel, Calif.
June 8, 1960

The Editor, The Pine Cone:

In all my long professional activity as music critic on dailies, and music magazines, besides the Pine Cone, in several parts of America, I am not conscious of having before taken hold of the wrong end of the stick, which Mr. Emilio Osta's letter you published says I did! I must therefore explain.

Not understanding his articulation (which many I spoke with that evening also did not) I asked two others what he said and they thought he indicated an "individual" performance of Chopin. It was, of course, unwise to quote and I here apologize for falsely attributing a statement to him. Nevertheless, his treatment of Chopin's pieces was exceedingly individual—so what? However, I understand his point of view and will send him a carbon of this or the paper if you publish this letter.

In his Spanish music he was very clever which I think I made clear to readers in my report.

Sincerely,
Mary Lindsay-Oliver

Hon. Ted Fehring
Chairman, Board of Trustees
Carmel Unified School District
P. O. Box 505
Carmel, California

Dear Sir:

The following is a Resolution unanimously adopted at the regular meeting of the American Legion in Carmel on June 6, 1960:

"Be it resolved that The American Legion, Carmel Post No. 512, made up of men and women who have fought to maintain the ideals of liberty and justice and to uphold the laws of the United States, does seriously deplore any action on the part of any of our duly elected representatives on any of our public boards which would minimize or overlook our laws that are designed to protect us, and those who come after us, from having our institutions undermined, particularly by the use of specious arguments appearing to protect certain individuals from the results of their own folly but actually exempting them from the reasonable operation of our duly enacted laws.

The foregoing is particularly applicable to those elective officials who have voluntarily taken an oath to uphold the laws of our state."

Sincerely yours,
Post No. 512,
The American Legion
Fabian Y. Era
Paul T. Artellan

Editor's Note:—Last week Carmel school trustees requested the transcript of a Un-American Activites sub-committee hearing on May 12 in San Francisco when Martin Marcus, Sunset School science and mathematics teacher, reportedly refused to answer questions put to him by the sub-committee under provisions of the Fifth Amendment.

The California Education Code provides that if a school employee refuses to answer questions put to him by a House committee he may be found guilty of insubordination and dismissed by a school board, following investigation and receipt of valid charges in the matter.

Young Carmel

Four Carmel students are literary editors of the Monterey Peninsula College magazine, e.g., which went on sale this week. They are Gordon Hurd, Diana Bourquin, L. Dale Harris and Teddi Schleicher. Lena Virgin of Carmel is art editor. All editors are also contributors to the literary magazine. Other Carmel contributors re Jerry De Bono and Susan White. Lena Virgin and Susan White are Carmel High School graduates.

The magazine was entirely student- produced as a class project under the direction of Raymond Fabrizio, instructor in English and magazine production, with the cooperation of the MPC are department. First such venture was published last year. This year the magazine's name was changed to e.g. All MPC students were invited to submit manuscripts and art work. Thirty selections were made from 75 submissions. There are 63 pages of prose, verse, photographs, and reproductions of paintings in full color. The cover is printed in two colors on white enamel stock paper.

Aage Knudsen Offers European Specialties At Dolores Bakery

Aage Knudsen, now operating Dolores Bakery, is offering customers European specialties including pastries of his native land, Denmark.

Mr. Knudsen and his wife, Helena, who helps him in his business, came to the United States four and a half years ago. "Next year we will be qualified to apply for citizenship," Mrs. Knudsen proudly states.

They operated their own bakery in Copenhagen before coming to this country. Mr. Knudsen was employed as a baker in San Francisco and locally after coming to Carmel three years ago. He spent a year baking for Blum's of Beverly Hills then returned here where he owns a home at Dolores and Alta streets.

He served in the Danish navy for ten years, "as a baker", he emphasizes, and adds that he first learned to bake in school under the Danish system of having students learn a trade. This training is demanding and exacting, Mr. Knudsen says.

Since acquiring Dolores Bakery a month ago from Mr. and Mrs. John Frey, who have retired, the Knudsens have redesigned and modernized baking facilities in the kitchen and later plan alterations in the shop.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

This is the last month of a year which will probably add up to being the most active period in the history of this library. The day after Memorial Day was our largest so far, in that we circulated 912 books and periodicals. We are now beginning our summer activities which include directing visitors to wherever they want to go, answering questions about the entire Peninsula and its inhabitants, and providing comfortable chairs and magazines for the tired and footsore. Truly a library wears a coat of many colors, and all of them seemly.

The summer reading program for children will begin as soon as school is out. This year being an election year, the children will follow a program designed along the line of the presidents of the United States, and for each book read they will receive a small sticker bearing a likeness of one of our presidents. These stickers they affix to a map of the United States. There will be ribbon awards for the industrious readers, and fun for everyone who enrolls in the program.

We have the third volume of General de Gaulle's memoirs, this one being entitled Salvation, 1944-1946. The book ends with the General's retirement in 1946. Going back in history to an earlier day, we have a new edition of the famous notebooks of Alexis de Toqueville who made his historic visit to America in 1831 and 1832. As he travelled over this country he wrote in his notebooks his impressions, experiences and conversations. This edition was translated by George Lawrence from the French edition of J. P. Mayer. The title is Journey to America.

The world knows Peter Townsend as a young man unlucky in love, but now readers may know him as a traveller over five continents and the author of a book about his journeyings. The title of the book is Earth, My Friend. It is well illustrated with photographs and maps.

The man with the almost unpronounceable name, Sacheverell Sitwell, has just published a book about Japan. The book is called The Bridge of the Brocade Sash. The author published his first book in 1924 and this latest publication is his forty-fourth published volume, which must be a record of some kind. Fifteen of the books were poetry. He writes of beauty and art with great sensitivity.

Finally, we should mention The Death of Africa by Peter Ritner. In reviewing this book Kirkus says Ritner "makes a strong appeal (along with a concrete program) to America to save a continent about to be submerged by psychological dislocation, political disruption, economic deprivation." The author is editor of a magazine called Current, which is a new one to us. We never heard of it, maybe you have. He writes very well, and seems to really have something to say.

Carmel Students Get Degrees From Various Colleges

Several universities this week granted degrees to Carmel college students. On Sunday Priscilla Gibson Hicks received a doctor of philosophy degree from Boston University Graduate School. Monday Donna C. Jones was granted a bachelor of science degree by the University of Wisconsin.

Tomorrow Helen Ross will receive a bachelor of arts degree at Scripps College commencement and Millard B. Martin a bachelor of arts degree in music at San Jose State College. Both Helen and Millard attended Carmel High School.

Salmon F. Dutton will get a bachelor of arts degree from Pomona College on Sunday and plans to enter the field of aeronautical engineering.

This evening at Fresno State College two Carmel students will be granted degrees. They are Marilyn Irene Crispo, who completed her work for a bachelor of arts degree in social studies in February, and Howard Jack Grey, who this month finished work for a bachelor of arts degree in geology.

Two Carmel students received bachelor of arts degrees from the University of California at Santa Barbara yesterday. They are Patricia Lou Anloff, elementary education major, and Allen Knight Jr., speech and drama major.

Wilder Comedy Opens Friday Night At Circle Theatre

Two local families account for no less than six actors in the Golden Bough Circle Theatre production of The Skin of Our Teeth, which opens tomorrow night. Ann McElroy Fry and Marcia Hovick, who share honors in the leading feminine roles of Thornton Wilder's comedy, are each supported by the acting talents of two of their offspring. Chris Hovick, 16-year-old Monterey High School student, has the major role of Henry Antrobus and will thus be playing his own mother's son. His brother, Nick, plays two of the many shorter roles.

Lucinda and Roberta Fry, daughters of Ann Fry of Carmel, are cast as a dinosaur and a mammoth, household pets in the highly unconventional home depicted by author Wilder.

The Skin of Our Teeth has delighted and puzzled audiences in New York, London and Paris since it first opened with Tallulah Bankhead as Sabina, the eternal temptress. The role has since been played by Vivien Leigh and Mary Martin.

The play won a third Pulitzer Prize for its author, and provided a major stepping-stone in the early careers of director Elia Kazan and actor Montgomery Clift. Circle Theatre director Frederick Rider also remembers it as the first play in which he appeared with a professional company. In a 1947 summer stock production he spoke only two lines, but gained a lasting enthusiasm for Wilder's play.

Following Friday's opening, The Skin of Our Teeth is scheduled to play Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings through July 10.

Music On The Peninsula

By Mary Lindsay-Oliver

The interesting song recital given Friday by Karen Steinke at the Monterey Peninsula College proved the presence in our midst of another worthy musical talent that has gone far towards an artistic whole. Accompanied by William Purdy of Fort Ord, Karen Steinke presented a varied program of classics and moderns, including three recent compositions by Phillip Buhler who is on the faculty of the College. The impressive Handel excerpt from Circe with which she opened immediately registered the rich quality and capacity of the singer. The accompaniment to this and the deep swell of the sea in the Cadara that followed required more sustained legato chords of fuller dexterity and feeling but the rest of the program was well played. Three Schubert lieder and the Adieu from Tschaikowsky's Jeanne d'Arc thoroughly established the vocal and dramatic qualities of this singer whom I first heard at the Gourmet entertainment of the County Symphony Guild, in an aria from Carmen, and was impressed then with her artistic ability. Her voice of telling quality, when balanced at both extremes of her range, would be suitable for an operatic career. Steinke's natural ease of manner in presentation is also an asset if she is careful about arbitrary hand movements—an overdosed trick of today's concert-presentations! In the Barber and Buhler songs her interpretations were to excellent advantage both for the composers and herself. Of Buhler's three, the first called Lost was the best and artistically the most complete though all were interesting and well received by the fair-sized audience present.

TWO ART FILMS AT MPC FRIDAY

Two films will be shown at the Monterey Peninsula College Armory tomorrow evening at 8:00 o'clock, Robert Flaherty's Moana and Le Chien Andalou by Luis Bunuel and Salvador Dali. The public is invited to attend without charge. The showing is the last in the college's spring art film series.

Moana is an exploration into the character and spirit of the people of the South Seas and was made by Flaherty, a pioneer in the field of documentaries, in 1926, four years after he completed Nanook of the North.

Le Chien Andalou, suitable for adult audiences only, was produced by Bunuel working with former local resident Dali. This picture is described as "a brilliant and disturbing work of pure surrealism."

DIVORCE

The farce of a trial was over;
The judge had said his say;
We were no longer man and wife;
You could go on your carefree way.

I stood like a marble statue;
I gave no weakening sign
Until from the face of our little child
Your blue eyes looked into mine!

THE FLAME

Oh, dear I love again
Who tasted bitter brew
When all I had of love
I freely gave to you?

Then, fan the feeble spark,
Breathe on the graying embers—
Perhaps the flame will leap again,
The flame my heart remembers!

SIX P. M.

Dusk lets her curtain down;
Flash of a blue bird's wing;
The sunset's golden crown
Looks like a wedding ring.

The windows all are dark,
Save one the light shines through;
Gladly I hurry toward that spark
Rushing home to Joy and You!

Kurt Brings Bride Home

Kurt and Hildegarde von Meier arrived in Carmel last week and are the guests of Kurt's mother, Mrs. Julian von Meier.

This is Hildegarde's first visit to Carmel. She and Kurt were married in January in Princeton, New Jersey, shortly after Hildegarde arrived in this country from her home in Germany.

Kurt has been away from Carmel for two years. The first year he spent in postgraduate studies in the history of art at the University of Madrid in Spain and met Hildegarde during his travels in Europe. He has just finished a year of graduate study in the history of art at Princeton University under a Charles Ames Brooks grant. He will return to Princeton in the fall and, under a special program of study, prepare to present his doctorate thesis next May on Japanese art, the first time such a program has been undertaken in the United States. Kurt has been granted a Princeton University Wilson Fellowship to pursue his studies next year.

This summer, on a grant from Stanford University, he will study Japanese for eight weeks. He begins his studies in Palo Alto on June 20.

Kurt graduated from the University of California before going to Spain. He is also a graduate of Carmel High School and Sunset School.

Another Approach To Religion

Where is there a religion that honestly encourages the fullest possible use of reason?

There is beauty and truth in many of the world's religious faiths. Is there a church anywhere that does not claim to have all the answers?

I cannot accept religious beliefs just on faith. Is there a church for me?

Can persons from any religious background — Christian, Jewish, Buddhist, Moslem, etc. —find one church where all are welcome without "conversion" or "renunciation?"

If you find something of your own thought, experience, and searching in these questions, you are invited to share your ideas with us—the Unitarian Church of the Monterey Peninsula. We meet every Sunday at 11:00 a.m. at the Masonic Auditorium, Central at Lighthouse, Pacific Grove. Literature about Unitarianism may be procured by writing: P.O. Box 92, Carmel.

Judith Bruggeman Weds Saturday

Chaplain G. L. Markel (USN ret.) will officiate at the wedding of Judith Ann Bruggeman and Lieutenant Elbert Lee Fryberger (USN) which will take place in the Carmel Presbyterian Church at 4:00 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

Judith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Bruggeman of Carmel. Her fiance's parents, Captain Elbert Lee Fryberger (USN ret.) and Mrs. Fryberger of San Luis Obispo will be here for the marriage. Already in Carmel is Judith's school friend, Joan Grenier of New York City, who will be maid of honor. Best man and ushers will be fellow students of Lieutenant Fryberger at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School except for the bride's brother, Fred Bruggeman, who is returning from The Principia College in Elsah, Illinois, to be an usher.

Judith, a graduate of The Principia, has been a teacher this year in the Lompoc school system. Previous to this she was employed by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Her fiance graduated from The United States Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1954 and for the past year has been a postgraduate electrical engineering student at the Navy School.

Among those who have entertained for Judith are Mrs. Fletcher Dutton, who gave a miscellaneous shower, and Mrs. Tod Singleton, who was hostess at a linen shower. Tomorrow evening, following the wedding rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Bruggeman will give a dinner for members of the bridal party at Spindrift. The wedding reception will be held in the garden of Judith's parents' home on Morse Drive.

The Leaches Do Broadway

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Leach have returned from a week in New York, where they combined business — buying for their shop, the Bib 'n Tucker — with pleasure. The latter mainly took the form of Broadway shows: the Leaches were lucky enough to wangle tickets to several top productions, including My Fair Lady, Fiorello, The Miracle Worker and the Thurber Carnival. The Leaches report that they enjoyed every bit of all of it including the New York weather (fair and warmer) and the jet flight.

Katy Fry, Daily Cal Reporter

U. C. freshman Katy Fry has been appointed a senior reporter on the staff of the Daily Californian. Her recent assignments have included covering the Caryl Chessman case—a far cry from her last journalistic job at Carmel High, which was editing the yearbook.

The daughter of Mrs. Marie Fry of Carmel, Katy will be home for vacation on June 15, but has taken a summer job as counselor at the UC camp, Lair of the Golden Bear.

To Fly To Olympics

Captain and Mrs. William Donnelly Jr. will leave Carmel on Sunday for East Hampton, New York, where they have taken a house near Mrs. Donnelly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Murphy. During the summer, Captain Donnelly plans to fly to Rome to attend the Olympic Games.

Hoppers To Go To Paris

Dr. and Mrs. James Hopper Jr. were in Carmel last week end. Dr. Hopper came here to attend meetings of the University of California Medical School faculty at Asilomar. In August he will leave with Mrs. Hopper and their four children for a year in Paris. On sabbatical leave, he will continue his research on the kidney and its relation to blood volume at the University of Paris and also attend meetings in Switzerland.

Dr. Hopper has been doing kidney and blood volume research at the University of California for some years. The importance of the kidney as a major organ of the body is just becoming fully recognized, he maintains. At the invitation of French physicians he will contribute to their research in this field while abroad.

He is the son of the late Carmel writer James Hopper, a member of the original group of artists and writers who came to live here following the San Francisco earthquake. Dr. Hopper received his early education at Sunset School and Monterey High School. Mrs. Herbert Vial of Carmel is his sister.

Carmelite Honored at Bryn Mawr

Miss Katharine F. Branson of Carmel received a Citation for Distinguished Service at the seventy-fifth anniversary convocation of Bryn Mawr College on Saturday. She received a bachelor of arts degree from the Pennsylvania school in 1909.

Miss Branson was cited to Bryn Mawr by Mills College as the "founder of a noble tradition in California education". For 31 years she was head of the Katharine Branson School for Girls in Ross. She retired in 1951 and came to Carmel to live. Since that time Miss Branson has "used her gifts and experience to help the community in various forms of service for the young," the citation states.

In 1953 Mills College granted Miss Branson an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Dorette Mueller Wed Sunday

Dorette Mueller and Richard L. Comings were married on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Carmel Woman's Club. Mr. Roland Hill of the Plymouth Brethren Congregation officiated at the marriage service. The bride was attended by Mrs. Sherman Comings, sister-in-law of the groom, as matron of honor. Sherman Comings was best man for his brother. A reception followed the ceremony.

The bride and groom are honeymooning this week at an undisclosed destination.

When they return they will live on Hatton Fields Mesa in the home which Mr. Comings and his brother, Sherman, built using, predominately, materials native to this region, chalk rock and Monterey pine. The wood was processed in their mill in Lower Carmel Valley.

Mrs. Comings came to the United States from Germany eight years ago and later opened a piano studio and kindergarten in Carmel.

Her husband is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harris Comings, who settled in Carmel in 1913.

Mayers' House Is Filling

Already at home with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mayer are two members of their college attending family. They are Anne Cartwright, former Carmel High School student who has just completed her freshman year at St. John's College, Annapolis, Maryland, and Rock Scully, who will return as a sophomore to Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana, in the fall. Next week they will be joined by Amanda Mayer and her fiance, Ted Stinchicum of Baltimore, Maryland. Amanda and Ted have just finished junior year studies at St. John's College.

"Then they all plan to set up a baby sitting, child care and tutoring bureau somewhere in the house," Mr. Mayer reports. "And operate it all summer," he adds.

In July the Mayers will have further additions to their household. Julie Mayer, who has just finished her first year as an instructor in English at the University of Wisconsin, will be married on July 3 in Chicago to Roger Bergman, then, with her husband come to Carmel on a honeymoon trip.

"But I don't think they'll join the job-hunting project," Mr. Mayer remarks.

Julie will return to teach at Wisconsin next year and also work towards a Ph. D. degree in English. Before joining the Wisconsin faculty, Julie was on the editorial staff of Mademoiselle magazine.

Mrs. Roberta G. Mack, San Francisco puppeteer and member of Puppeteers of America, will lecture, show pictures of ancient puppets and demonstrate with her own puppets for members of the Carmel Crafts Guild tomorrow evening at 8:00 o'clock in the Carmel Art Association Galleries.

Saturday morning at 10:00 and in the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock the public is invited free of charge to see Mrs. Mack demonstrate the basic techniques of making puppets at the workshop of Puppets of Carmel on San Carlos Street near Fifth Avenue. Although admission is free, reservations must be made for the workshop demonstration. Telephone either MA 4-6234 or MA 4-7358 for information.

Mrs. Mack has studied wood sculpture with Emil Janel in San Francisco. She instructs teachers how to use puppets in speech therapy work, a field in which she, also, is active. School Board To Offer Modified Salary Rates To Teachers Tonight

V, B.A. plus 60 postgraduate units, including an M.A.

All teachers, kindergarten through high school, have the same starting salary in the board's proposed schedule, also the same raises at the same steps. This also applies to the teachers' schedule.

Carmel's starting salary of $4500 at present is $215 less than Monterey's; $200 less than a new schedule proposed for Pacific Grove teachers. Maximum Monterey salary is $8510 as compared to Carmel's $8000 now; $9500 in the teachers' proposed schedule; $9000 to be offered by the board to the teachers this evening.

The raises offered by the board are only for the 1960-61 school year.

The Carmel Teachers Association salary committee will study the board's proposal, then report back before any action is taken by the board on salary raises.

Also this evening Assistant Superintendent Wayne Greenfield will present the board, through the finance committee, a proposed new salary schedule for classified employes.

A new salary schedule for administrators is still not ready for presentation to the board. Administrators' salaries are set on a percentage basis in relation to teachers' salaries.

Arts Commission Abandons Hopes For Art Festival

campaign. It will no doubt be repaired, since everybody wants it repaired, but too late for the Arts Festival, which nobody regrets. A realization of the lack of popularity of the proposed festival was indicated in Drizari's "and for other considerations." Had the Forest Theater been available in gleaming new condition the festival would still need financing. The city would not have provided funds. In a town over-flowing all summer and fall, the business people have no need of a tourist-drawing festival, and the residents have no love of the tourists whose traffic crowds them off Ocean Avenue, so private funds would not have been available from either source. —W.C.

They agreed to the request of the library board trustees that library employees be included in the city health insurance program. Total cost to the city will be $392.-88 annually.

in the sun of our grandchildren's faces! Clouds hung over Coeur d'Alene, over northern Idaho, Montana, Yellowstone, the Tetons. The sun shone on the high desert, at Lehman Caves, through Nevada. Why this interest in the weather? I was taking color slides. I have them back from the processor already and they are terrible.

We arrived home Sunday after two weeks of almost constant travelling and everybody has been saying, "My, your vacation did you good. You look so rested."

Then they want to know why the Pine Cone didn't take a stand on the J. C. election.

We didn't get back in time. Muddle-headedly, I thought we would have another issue, after we returned, before election. Judging by the election returns, more than a majority of you wouldn't have liked our recommendation, a fact we knew very well in advance, but that never stops us.

We're proud of the two fine issues the staff put out while we were gone, and approve their hesitancy in speaking for us on a highly charged issue. On our own head. . . . —W.C.

County Commission Gets Church Plans For Valley Rest Home

The Northern California Congregational Conference submitted to the county planning commission on Monday plans for a 236-unit apartment-type rest home to be built on 18 acres of the former Noel Sullivan property next to old Carmelo School in Carmel Valley. Hollow Hills was the suggested name for this development.

The Reverend William D. Pratt, superintendent of the conference, said initial fee for moving into an apartment would be $8,000-$18,000. Monthly charges of $175 would be added to cover board, maintenance, medical and nursing care of occupants, all of whom must be 60 years of age or older,

Included in the plans were recreational buildings, dining hall, chapel, meeting hall, lounge, library, hobby and craft shop, swimming pool, bathhouse, dressing rooms, outdoor and indoor barbecues, snack bar, greenhouse and garden.

Also in the plans were a stage and dressing room for theatrical productions, incidental shop, dispensary, physical therapy rooms, infirmary, nurses' quarters, administrative and executive offices, visitors" quarters, storage rooms, barber and beauty shop, laundry.

The county commission will consider granting a use permit for the project on June 28. Rest homes are allowed in the area under such a permit.

Earlier in the afternoon planners granted a use permit for a 300-unit rest home about two and a half miles up the Valley from Highway 1.

WOMAN SLIGHTLY HURT WHEN CAR JUMPS CLIFF

Carmel police received a call at 4:26 o'clock yesterday afternoon informing them that a car had gone over the cliff on Scenic Drive just north of Thirteenth Avenue.

Investigating, officers found Mrs. Louise C. Hagstrom, 71, had apparently failed to make a right turn off Thirteenth onto Scenic and hit the curb. Her car rolled over before coming to rest in a thicket of acacia and cypress a few feet above the rock retaining wall on the beach.

Mrs. Hagstrom was taken to the Peninsula Community Hospital in the Red Cross ambulance operated by Carmel Fire Department volunteers and was released after treatment for head cuts, according to the police report. She lives at the Lee rest home, Carmelo and Thirteenth.

EARLY BIRDS DISCOVER CAR ON H. S. PLAYFIELD

This morning students arriving early for 8:00 o'clock classes at Carmel High School discovered a foreign convertible parked in the middle of the girls' athletic field.

Investigations by the sheriff's office disclosed the car belonged to Michael Quarrie of Carmel Valley. Yesterday when he started to go home from school, the clutch of his car went out. He left the car in the school parking lot at 5:45 o'clock after removing the distributor cap. Sometime before 7:30 o'clock this morning, the car was rolled to the playfield and the wiring and distributor removed, according to the sheriff's report.

COUNTY CENSUS RETURNS

The population of Monterey County has increased by 66,654 persons since 1950, according to preliminary census figures in a report from State Senator Fred Farr. Present county population is 197,152 persons. State population gain since 1950 is 5,000,000 persons, total present population 15.7 million, Farr's report states.

Results of California's 10-year population gain mean seven new congressmen added to the present 30 in Washington, also the equivalent of a good-sized school has to be built somewhere in the state every day, the Farr report adds.

RED CROSS CHAIRMAN THANKS CONTRIBUTORS

The response of the people of the Carmel area for clothing, blanket and funds for the victims of the earthquake and tidal waves in Chile is most gratifying, according to Robert Ross, Chapter Chairman. "We have been advised that sufficient clothing is now on the way," said Mr. Ross, "but there is still great need for blankets and funds. According to the latest news release from the Red Cross Headquarters in Chile the count of the dead and missing is 4,000, with more than 25,000 homeless; 50,000 homes are destroyed or so damaged that they are uninhabitable. Funds to help rebuild will continue to be needed for sometime."
